Bangalore,

D.3093 2nd March 1909.

Dear Mr.Madhava Rao,

With reference to my letter dated 20th January 1908, I write to say that I have heard from Mr.Colton by this last mail. He says that the accessories are being cast and that one of the tigers will be exhibited in the Royal Academy this year. He hopes that they will be completed about June or July and asks that arrangements may be made to pay the final instalment of £1,500 about that time. Will you very kindly have the matter noted.

As regards the Statue itself, he has experienced great difficulty in securing a block of marble of the requisite size and quality. He has however done so at last and hopes to get to work on the block in another week or two. I am afraid that the Statue is not likely to be ready for another year. However, that need not prevent the canopy being pushed on. Apparently, work is going on very slowly at Makrana and I should think it would be a good thing if Captain Dawes could go up there before long and see how things are. The beauty of the edifice will greatly depend on the quality of the marble and it ought to be passed by a responsible officer before it is despatched from .. the quarries. After the £ 1,500 referred to above is paid, the only payment remaining due to Mr.Colton will be £2,333-6-8 being the final payment on completion of the Statue.

Yours Sincerely,

(Sd) E.Maconochie.

The Palace,

Mysore, 26th October 1910

My dear Sir,

Mr.Colton, the Sculptor, has asked for a further payment of £ 1,000(Pounds one thousand) on the statue account and His Highness desires me to say that he would be obliged if you would kindly have the necessary order about this early passed. Mr.Colton wants to be paid through Messrs. Coutts and Co., London, as usual. In case the instalment is one under the terms of the agreement, it is well and ... good. Otherwise payment may be made in anticipation of settlement of account in due course. The sum may be treated as an advance, if so preferred by the Comptroller.

Yours Sincerely,

(Sd) P.Raghavandra Rao,
